“ Riley moved into Manchester Manor apartments when he was very little. We played outside all the time and Riley eventually joined in. He loved our 4th of July shows in the courtyard, came to all our parties, and was just a pure joy to always have around. He did run away once when he was very little. We were all so panicked, and he ended up across Queen going to visit his grandparents! God bless you Riley 🙏 We love you! God bless your family and friends during this sad time 🙏

“ I was fortunate enough to work with Riley at Liberty Elementary and Memorial Middle School. We aren't suppose to have "favorite" students, but he was most definitely one of mine! I was wearing a Misfits hoodie one day and Riley said hey Miss Hannah you like the Misfits? I told him they were one of my favorite bands. He asked if there was cursing in their lyrics. I told him only in a few songs. Then about a week later Riley came into class and he had a Misfits mask. We decided that Mondays would be Misfit Monday and we would wear our Misfit attire on every Monday. I will keep that tradition going and think of you, Riley everytime I wear something Misfit related or when listening to their music. Riley I am going to miss talking to you about music, biographies (because chapter books are for kids), art, and movies. I am going to miss helping you look up recipes for food that you won't eat. Riley I'm going to miss your giggle and your smile. Riley I'm just going to miss you!

“ I would Video call your mom and I always had to talk to you to and if I ever forgot you would make sure to call me back and remind me. I remember you being so excited that I was your visitor and I didn’t quite get what you meant until you pulled out your baby scrap book and showed me the picture of me holding you in the hospital and my name was drawn under and I told you that I visited you because I loved you and you always told me love you too des.

“ Riley was a very sweet boy. He had a unique way of showing you his love, and it was so genuine. Riley was one who captured an audience and was always happy to entertain a crowd. He enjoyed people and always took the opportunity to listen to peoples' stories. He was able to remember them, and never forgot one detail. A true listener, contagious laugh, and a sweet smile are things that we recognized him for. Nonetheless, many things made Riley happy; he brought so much joy to all who knew him. He had such a love for music, games, and art. He spent his days playing outside with his dog, and protector, Brutus. They took long walks and spent many of their days walking in search of adventure. Content, silly, fearless, and empathetic made him the sweetest boy, son, and friend. All of us would have loved to spend the rest of our eternity with you; Riley we miss you everyday.

“Riley was my favorite fishing buddy back in the day when we practiced fishing. Although we never caught any real fish together, we caught many, many imaginary fish which was even better than catching real fish because you can always be successful. Our fishing was always exciting, too... we caught many sharks, which was, of course, Riley's idea. Riley was always highly imaginative and sensitive, very sensitive, and a very kind soul.

My favorite memories are of how Robert and Riley would kid and tease one another. They are beautiful memories to me because in them I see the shining light of pure love and understanding.

Today, I remember something that Riley said once in a brief moment. He tossed out the comment as if it had no significance as he sometimes would do, but his comment was profound and I have carried it with me ever since. One day, when I met with Riley, he wasn't feeling well. He was a bit under the weather as this sometimes happens in our human lives. Riley walked past a crumpled cloth that had fallen to the floor. And in the way his mind made connections, he casually stated, "My soul is on the floor."

Today I learned that Riley is no longer with us, and my heart hurts for the loss, and it hurts when I think of the loved ones he left behind who are hurting even more than I.

Today, my soul is on the floor.

Raising Riley was the best thing that ever happened to us, the humor, the little mind full of trivia facts, his love of school, and mostly his love of family. First thing every morning I got my Grandpa hug and an I love you from Riley, then he'd have to have his bacon, mocha and strawberry milk. He thought this Coronavirus thing sucked and couldn't understand why we couldn't go to school and why we didn't go to the movies anymore. He loved his mom and dad more than anything in the world, family was number one with him. he was especially loving of his cousin Mason, they loved each other to the moon and back, now Mason roams our house yelling for Ryri now know its possible to live without a piece of my heart, a big piece of mine went with Riley. Riley, I know your in a better place and the family is watching over you in heaven. Until we meet again, I love you more than you can imagine. Grandpa xoxoxoxo
