“ Still missing my youngest brother!! Pilot Brown passed way too early for all of us!

“ I am missing my youngest brother, Rob, now, as I often do. He was such a talented private pilot & some of my favorite memories are flying with him. He enjoyed explaining to me what he was doing with the plane, often in great detail & fascinating clarity. I remember lots of take-offs & landings until he was very satisfied with his techniques. I often imagine him flying high in the Heavenly skies with a big grin & a captivating story!!
