“ My dear sweet brother. Today would be your 79th birthday. There is so much I would love to talk with you about. I'm so fortunate to be enjoying life. I just wish that you were still here to enjoy it with. I'm adding a couple of AI versions of you to the photos here. I know you would get a kick out of them! Love you forever, Sis.

“ Missing you on what would have been your 74th birthday, dear brother. Rob and I are in our new home on the Big Island and you would love it! I feel your presence in the garden on a half acre with more more than 100 types of plants. Mom's presence, too! I feel that you both guided me to this place. I wish you could help me with the weeding! We have adopted an old hound from the shelter and you would love him, too! Funny thing is he came with the name "Ringo," who as you know was my favorite Beatle. We will adopt a couple of kitties soon. Smiles and tears today. Love you forever. -- Danee

“ Remembering all years we celebrated Christmas and New Years. We'd pick out a tree and you'd carry to the truck on one shoulder. One year, you carried two at the same time, one on each shoulder..one for us, one for Glenda. You always brought home pine and cedar boughs to decorate the home with and Pyracantha berries! You never forgot the mistle toe. All those amazing ornaments we had, we'd decorate together. Cats sleeping under the tree. Big Christmas Eve and Christmas Day family dinners we had and cooked for. New Years Day, we'd follow the Armenian tradition of being the first to bring bread to the family's house...your Mom and my Mom. Having Khafeeyah Christmas morning at your Mom's... Without you I've never celebrated Christmas much. Missing you a lot this year, my sweetie.

“ Robaire and I were cousins. We were close when we were younger, but time and geography separated us. I always thought of him as my cool cousin. I still have contact with his sister who lives in Hawaii. He was precious and will be missed now. I was looking forward to re-connecting with him thru a big family reunion this summer. Peace, my cousin.

“ I met Robaire through the community garden. He seemed to garden the same hours as I did, and was quick to offer garden advice, to just chat and lend/share garden tools. He will be missed! Sheri Puckette
