

Robert Eggers

March 1, 1925 - December 20, 2011

Robert H. Eggers, 86 died Tuesday. Born on a farm south of Corvallis March 1, 1925, he was the son of Paul and Elizabeth Eggers. On October 30, 1948, he married Marie Bauer in Corvallis. The couple had four children. He was a self employed log truck driver and later worked for Stan Wilt and George Shroyer as a heavy equipment operator. According to his family, “Our Dad enjoyed steelhead fishing and guiding on the Alsea and Siletz Rivers. He loved elk hunting with his son and son-in-law in the Wallowa Mountains in Northeastern Oregon. He loved the outdoors and especially taking all of us on many memorable camping trips. He was very devoted to Mom and his children—that was what he enjoyed the most in life.”

Robert was a life long member of Zion Lutheran Church in Corvallis and resided in Corvallis all of his life until he and Marie moved to Meridian, Idaho in 2006 to be near their family.

Preceded in death by his parents; his brother Harold Eggers. Robert is survived by his wife of 63 years, Marie Eggers; children Tom Eggers, Pam (Mike) Harshfield, Gloria Eggers, Janice (Mark) Oliver; siblings Helen Miller and Herb Eggers; 4 grandchildren Amy (Jim), Lee (Brooke), Alex and Tyler and 1 great grandchild, Jack.
