“ Remembering our neighbor, Bob Jones: He was a true gentleman. Several years ago, my young granddaughter Abby decided to heat some candle wax on the stove top. She was distracted, and a fire broke out. She ran next door for help, and Mr. Jones came to the rescue. He was so kind with her, just as he always was with everyone, especially to his beloved Annaliese. He will be missed. My sincere sympathy to Patrice & Annaliese, Gerri Schroff

When I was a young man on Michigan State's swimming team Bob was like an older brother to me. I am very sorry to hear of his passing. He was a good man and was someone with a character that I aspired to be like. My deepest sympathy to his family.
