

Robert L. McLaren

July 22, 1934 - February 9, 2021

Robert L. (Bob) McLaren, 86, died at Good Samaritan Regional Medial Center on Tuesday, February 9, 2021. He was born July 22, 1934 in Linn County Oregon. Bob was a true Oregonian, living here his entire life along with his wife, Carole, who survives. They were married in 1959 in Shedd, Oregon, almost 63 years.

Bob is survived by a son, Kenneth L. McLaren and a daughter, Carla R Schuh. He had three grandchildren: Zachary Schuh of Lebanon, Oregon; Kersey Schuh and Caleb Schuh of Corvallis.

Bob was the last member of his immediate family to pass. Other deceased family members included parents Bill and Pauline McLaren as well as his brothers: Leroy, Dan, Jim and sister, Dorris.

Bob served in the US Army for two years. He loved being in the service, traveling all over the United States and Germany, taking all the classes he could on maintaining vehicles.

Bob worked many years in the auto garages around Corvallis. Later he worked for Kirk's Tire Service until he was badly injured and retired to heal. Three years later he went to work for City Delivery as a courier and later worked for Citizens Bank as a courier until his retirement. He spent summers as a Camp Host at Trout Creek Campground.

Bob loved spending time in his backyard and watching the Seattle Mariners on television. And he loved his dogs.

Due to COVID-19, there will be no services at this time. A family graveside service is planned for the near future.
