

Rodney Earl Angerbauer

February 22, 1969 - October 21, 2021

Rodney Angerbauer was born to Gary and Diana (Erwert) Angerbauer Feb 21, 1969, at Salem General Hospital in Oregon. He spent the first 10 years of his life in Salem before moving to Beaverton Oregon, then Hillsboro Oregon. Rodney attended school in Hillsboro for elementary and part of Junior High School. He spent a few years of school in Spanaway Washington and Puyallup Washington before Graduating in Salem Oregon.

Rodney is survived by his wife Sandra, daughter, Karli, and son, Austin. He also had one grandson, Jordan; a stepdaughter and stepson. He is also survived by three brothers: James, Ryan, and Timothy, and his mother, Diana.

Rodney loved fishing, even though he hated water, and would only go if his bride was on board with him. His other favorite things in life included ice cream, popcorn, and movies. His sobriety was very important to him and had been clean since Dec 26, 2009. He established and owned his own business in which he used to support his children that he was extremely proud of.

He was a very dedicated man to God. He LOVED God! He dedicated his life to being God's servant after his struggle with drugs and alcohol ended. He loved his business and providing for his wife and family. He was very bonded with his brother James, Ryan, and Timothy. Rod was all about his wife, family, brothers and living his life according to Gods Word. He is so very loved and missed!

A memorial service is planned for 3:00 PM, Friday, November 12, 2021 at The Shift Church, 5775 SE Columbus, in Albany, Oregon. Arrangements are by McHenry Funeral Home.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

NOV 12. 3:00 PM - 4:00 PM (PT)

The Shift Church
5775 SE Columbus St
Albany, OR 97322
<https://discovertheshift.com/>

Tribute Wall

“ Tracy Taghon lit a candle in memory of Rodney Earl Angerbauer ”

Tracy Taghon - November 09, 2021 at 12:27 PM