“ I grew up with RON we went to school together in elementary school and high school. He lived behind my house we did everything together as kids I can remember throwing oranges that grew along a medium and we would see who could toss them the furthest. In high school I drove with him and he was 1956 Chevrolet to school every day. He was such a great guy to keep me out of trouble he always did the right thing. We stayed out many nights till 12 1 o'clock in the morning cruising Central Avenue in Phoenix looking for girls but never found them. I'm gonna really miss my buddy
