“ I remember Ron from growing up on South 18th street. Which is now a grassy area between Finley Hall and some new Apartment buildings.

Ron was kind, and generous from what I remember. A dedicated golfer, and a friendly employee at Safeway. I moved out of state for employment after 1976 but ran into him a few times when I had returned for summer school at Oregon St. and to visit family and friends.

Glenn Jacob, one of the twins.
