

Rosella Prelsnik

December 29, 1923 - May 4, 2011

Rosella Prelsnik, 87, died peacefully May 4 in Corvallis.

Rosella was born to William J. Berns and Carolyn E Kuper in Montesano, Wash. Soon after she was born, her family moved to Tillamook. She was a longtime resident of San Jose, Calif., and moved in 1979 to Pebble Beach, Calif., where she resided until moving to Corvallis last year.

“Roz” lived life to the fullest. She laughed easily and often with family and friends while enjoying cooking and entertaining, golf, cards, picnics and walks on the beach, and traveling.

She will be dearly missed by her children, Pat Greenberg of Canyonville, Karen (Dan) Sundseth of Corvallis, Steve (Lynne) Prelsnik of Pebble Beach, and Phil (Beth) Prelsnik of Sparks, Nev.; six grandchildren; two great-children; one nephew; seven nieces and their families; and an endless list of friends.

A funeral Mass will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday, May 10, at St. Mary’s Catholic Church in Corvallis.

Memorial contributions may be made to Catholic Relief Services, Mercy Corps or the charity of your choice.
