“Rosemary was the kindest, most gentle humanitarian this side of New Jersey which is where she started from. Her own Bryant Realty office, which I was a part of, was actually more like a trusted family. Rosemary was a sincere person, a fun person and anyone who dealt with her knows how nice she was to all people and all dogs. Once while showing a house there was a dog chained out back. It was a very cold day and the dog was shivering and wining. Rosemary then proceeded to convince the abusive dog owner that she would take the dog off his hands. This dog, Charlie, was very often in our office with us as was many of her other dogs. Charlie didn't win any blue ribbons like the other dogs did but Charlie had a good life. We all had a good life thanks to Rosemary.

“Rosemary trained me to be a real estate agent, and I am so lucky that I had the opportunity to work with her. Beyond being a successful and ethical business woman, she was a model of social responsibility and kindness to everyone, regardless of his/her station in life. She cared as much about everyone else's success as she did about her own. Her laughter and wry sense of humor could brighten any room, and she will be missed by anyone who knew her. Rest in peace, beautiful Rosemary.
