“ Rudy came from Klamath Falls Oregon living on Shasta Way. He was a year behind me in high school at KUHS (his class was 1954). We were in the Boy Scouts together. I knew his mother and father as well. Rudy was one of the group of seven of us at KUHS. Since then Ellis Stiles and Gerry Brown died in 2004. I was going to call him today but his phone was disconnected. Went out to look him up online and learned of his death. I'll miss talking to Rudy - he was always good for keeping track of others.

“ I met Rudy for the first time last year when my family and I attended a family wedding in Hood River, OR. My husband, son, and I drove from Hood River to Rudy and Dianne's house in Philomath so I could re-connect with Dianne who is my First Cousin. I had not seen Dianne in years and had not met Rudy until then. However, I had talked to Rudy over the years and was instantly taken by his warm personality over the telephone. After meeting with Rudy I continued to talk with him from Massachusetts on a regular basis. I had talked with him on his birthday on March 6th and to fine out if Dianne was doing OK. He did not answer the phone when I last checked in with him earlier this month. After getting on the internet we found his obituary. What a shock to me and my family. I will miss not speaking with him very much. He was obviously such a kind and caring man. I would love for one of his family members to connect with me at some point. “ Rudy was the best neighbor a guy could ask for. Always a nice word and thought! A real role model of a husband and father. I will surely miss him.
