

Ruth Ryker

August 3, 1913 - January 7, 2008

Ruth Wikstrom Ryker went home with her Lord in the early hours of Jan. 7. She passed away peacefully at Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center surrounded by her family.

Ruth was born Aug. 3, 1913 in Spokane, Wash. She worked for the Grand Union Tea Company and married Clyde Ryker, who in 1974 preceded her passing. She retired from Travelers Insurance and moved to Corvallis to be near her son and his family.

Her activities included travel to Europe and the Middle East, membership in Northwest Hills Community Church and Good Samaritan's Auxiliary.

Ruth is survived by her brother, Paul Wikstrom of Spokane, Wash.; son Kenneth Ryker and his wife, Bethann Ryker; grandchildren and their spouses, Daniel and Royce Ryker, and Janene Ryker Hall and Joshua; five great-grandchildren, Sophia, Andrea and Skyler Ryker, and Caleb and Nathan Hall. Her calm and supportive manner at family gatherings will be greatly missed. Private family services were held.

Memorial donations in Ruth's name may be directed to Northwest Hills Community Church in care of McHenry Funeral Home, 206 N.W. Fifth St., Corvallis, OR 97330.
