“ My wife Bonnie and I were neighbors across the road from Sharon and Doug on Mason Lane. She shared many stories about the area and her connection to the place. She was always willing to help in any way she could since we were new to the area. A very kind and thoughtful person, she helped her hubby, Doug, be as active as he could, even to the extent of getting him (the two of them actually) out on the river to fish one last time (2022 or 23?). We very much appreciated her being such a good neighbor and I believe a friend as well! RIP Sharon!
