

Sherman Stewart

May 28, 1943 - February 4, 2018

Sherm Stewart was born in Salt Lake City to Iiril and Edith (Sherman) Stewart. He grew up in Mill Valley California, where he was a strong athlete, graduating from Tamalpais High School, before serving in the US Army.

He met and married Gayle while working for the telephone company. They had two children.

Later, he became a long haul truck driver, who stopped regularly to photograph the many interesting sights along his way. Sherm loved horses and was an amateur underwater photographer.

Sherm is survived by his wife, Patricia; son, Matthew of Albany; daughter Susie Wallace of Mill Valley, California; five grandchildren; and brother Richard of Mill Valley.

A funeral service will be at 11 a.m. on Thursday, February 8 at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1615 28th St SE, Albany.

Tribute Wall

 Amber
Bennett

“ I loved finding out that we were related! Family history was so much fun with you! I'll miss your hugs that felt like family. See you again!

Amber Bennett - April 14, 2018 at 12:42 AM

 DD

“ What a nice guy. It is good to know this is not the end.

Daniel and Karen Davis - February 09, 2018 at 02:37 PM

 JS

“ Sherm, you were a joy to know in this life. I am going to miss seeing your smiling face each Sunday at church. Such a warm and caring personality that is going to be missed.

Jeff Stimpson - February 07, 2018 at 09:14 PM