

Shirley Ridenour

September 4, 1936 - March 7, 2011

Shirley Ridenour died Monday in Portland.

She was born in Pittsburg, Kan., moving to Oregon in 1946. She attended school in Albany until her family moved to Nashville. She then attended school in Eddyville, where she met and dated James Ridenour. After graduation, she lived in California, Oregon and Missouri, raising her family. Then she retired and moved to the warm climate of Arizona.

At her 42-year class reunion, she and James reconnected, started dating and were married in 2005. They had many things in common, and really enjoyed their brief time together.

Survivors include children Alonzo and Tim of Texas, Linda of Sheridan, and Larry of Virginia; stepchildren Brenda of Toledo, and Jimmy and Kenny of California; many grandchildren and great-grandchildren; sister Jean; sister-in-law Millie; and brothers-in-law Hoodie, Stan and Bill. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband James; brothers; and sisters.

A viewing will take place from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. Friday, March 11, at McHenry Funeral Home in
