

Susan Nero

February 7, 1944 - November 18, 2010

Susan Ruth Nero, 66 of Corvallis died Thursday, November 18th, at Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center. Born February 7, 1944 in Lansdowne, Pennsylvania; she was the daughter of George Lawrence and Florence Ruth (Reid) Heeren. Susan graduated from Lansdowne-Aldan High School and attended the Episcopal Hospital of Philadelphia where she earned her nursing degree. She later received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Penn State. Susan was employed for 39 years as a registered nurse in Pennsylvania, Texas, California and Corvallis. She worked in pediatrics, labor and delivery and also as a neonatal intensive care nurse. She enjoyed gardening, cooking, crafting, reading murder mysteries and traveling. She will be remembered as a born leader with a strong personality—never to be taken advantage of, but always kind, loving and generous to a fault.

She was preceded in death by her father, George “Larry” Heeren. Susan is survived by her husband of 28 years, Bill Nero; mother, Florence Deveney; daughter and son-in-law, April and Steve Peake of Albany; son and daughter-in-law Robert and Deborah Barmore of New York City; son David Barmore of Los Angeles; two grandchildren Jonah and Garrett Peake; sister Carolyn Allen and brother Reid Heeren.

A visitation will take place at 10:00 am, Friday, December 3rd at the Episcopal Church of the Good Samaritan in Corvallis, followed by a funeral service at 11:00 am. Memorial donations in Susan’s name may be directed to the Episcopal Church of the Good Samaritan in care of McHenry Funeral Home

206 NW 5th St., Corvallis, OR 97330.
