

Twila Avon Quetschke

August 3, 1930 - October 9, 2015

Twila Avon Quetschke, 85 died Friday, at the Regency in Albany. Twila was born in Burnt Woods on August 3, 1930 to Archie and Emily McFarland. She was the youngest of seven children. She attended school in Eddyville and married Virgil Quetschke in 1948. The couple had four children Roberta, Art, Teri and Scott. Twila was a homemaker and also enjoyed the outdoors—hunting and fishing were among her favorite pastimes. After all of her children had graduated high school, she took a job in the mailroom at Oregon State University.

Twila is preceded in death by her husband, Virgil who died in 1991 and all of her siblings. She is survived by her daughter Roberta Quetschke, son Art (Nancy) Quetschke, daughter Teri (Bob) Stephens, and son Scott (Sally) Quetschke; 7 grandchildren Brian, Chris, Tim, Kenneth, Justin, Charles and Adrian; 6 great grandchildren.

Private family services will be held at Twin Oaks Memorial Gardens in Albany. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Twila's name may be directed to a charity of choice.
