“ Venus,

*For 25 years plus, you served us firefighters on the floor.
You worked on, Payroll, Project Budgets and Telestaff
You were able to teach me how to scan, hyperlink and more
My biggest thanks to you is how you made me laugh!*

*You took time to improve me when I failed and didn't deserve
You were my secret Fire Chief, understanding, compassionate but gruff*

You made me a better Firefighter, Medic and Lieutenant and refocused my mission to serve.

Your presence with us made us dig in and give our best stuff.

*I'd love hear your shit regarding this poem to you... you would laugh that laugh of yours and say TMI (Too Much Info). Then later you would say thank you but that sucked dude! Square Heaven away, I can't promise Ill see ya up there. Heaven has needs and all that follow will be benefitted by your input! I will attempt to mirror your compassion for X mas kids, SERVICE, and silent professionalism. Please get some rest and forget about your pain,
We at CFD got your duties from here, WE HAVE YOUR BACK AND DUTIES. I know you will send hints to us all when needed. I miss you. Please advise me of any and all forms I need to submit to get into Heaven. HOOK ME UP SISTER!*

“ I had the privilege of working with Venus at CFD. She was always a straight to the point, no nonsense kind of person, and I loved that about her. She had a heart of gold. If you were lucky enough to be Venus' friend, you knew you had a strong advocate on your side. I will miss seeing her at station 1 each day and I will miss her sass and infectious laugh. In her last months myself and my crew were lucky enough to have the honor and privilege to help her get settled in the mornings when she'd show up to work. Cancer didn't stop her drive and determination to show how self-sufficient and strong willed she was. Witnessing that was motivating and contagious. We miss you and love you Venus.

“ Venus, where to begin? I remember when we first met at my wedding and I felt close to you right away. Your honesty, warmth and quick wit and oh that laugh - I was smitten from the very beginning. And based on the outpouring of love and support for your beloved Aaron, Bella and Marious - I know I'm not alone in this love and admiration for one of the all time greats - Venus Dawn Acosta.

“ Venus is a bright light in my life. Her humor, her friendship, her warmth. The love she has for her family and friends is clear to all who know her, as is her fierce loyalty. Until we meet again, sister. We love you.
