

Violet Lopp

July 2, 1935 - August 27, 2012

Violet Lopp of Corvallis was a very caring, generous person who will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

She was employed for more than 20 years as a registered nurse in the operating room of Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center in Corvallis, after moving to Oregon from Michigan in 1979 with her husband George and family. Blessed with a wide variety of talents and interests, she especially enjoyed fishing with her husband and friends, reading, gardening, and knitting many lovely afghans for friends and relatives. She often assembled rosaries at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Corvallis for members of the military. An avid animal lover, Violet owned horses and raised Chihuahuas at her home in Blodgett. She played the piano and had a beautiful voice, often singing solos at choral concerts in her youth. Violet especially loved traveling with her family, and visited 14 states and Western Canada over the past few years.

Violet is survived by her daughters Linda Lopp and Tracey Lopp; her grandchildren Anthony and Katie Wamsley; her brother Edward Thomas; her sisters Linda Thomas and Sylvia Dobeck; her brother-in law Nick Dobeck; her niece Laura Dobeck; and several cousins. Her husband George Lopp passed away in 1994.

A memorial service for Violet will take place at 11 a.m. Monday, Sept. 17, at Willamette National Cemetery in Portland. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to your local Humane Society.
