

William Hampton

November 14, 1917 - May 5, 2012

William H. "Bill" Hampton, 94, of Corvallis died Saturday, May 5, at his home. Bill was born in Pendleton. He served as a Lt. Commander on destroyers in the U.S. Navy during World War II and the Korean conflict. Bill received his bachelor's degree from Oregon State College, now Oregon State University. He was employed as a systems engineer for the Defense Department. Bill married Dovie Singleton on Feb. 5, 1941. She died on Aug. 6, 1988. Bill and Adeline Maloney met at a hospice gathering in the winter of 1988, and they were married Sept. 4, 1997. Bill enjoyed traveling and golfing, and was an avid lifelong Beaver fan. Bill is survived by his wife, Adeline; seven stepchildren; and 12 step-grandchildren. Private inurnment will take place at Willamette National Cemetery.