

William "Bill" Pitcher

October 12, 1953 - April 20, 2020

William (Bill) Dan Pitcher, 66, of Monroe Oregon, passed away on April 20, 2020.

Bill was born on October 12, 1953 to Delbert and Wilma Pitcher in Eugene Oregon.

Bill spent most of his life farming in the Monroe area. He loved spending time outdoors, hunting & fishing. He especially loved hunting waterfowl with his dog.

Bill is survived by his three children, Matt, Whitney and Blake, his brother Frank, and his grandchildren.

He is preceded in death by his parents, and his sister Pam.

A memorial will be announced once Covid-19 regulations are lifted.

Tribute Wall

“ I am Really Sorry Lisa Crowson Rictor & Matt Pitcher My Prayers Are with all of you @ This Moment 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏❤️ My Condolences Tiffanee Crowson

Tiffanee Crowson - April 23, 2020 at 11:16 PM

RV

“ Bill and I bought a 6 wheel all together. We had tons of fun in it. Even the break downs were memorable. RIP Bill I will ll miss your laugh. My condolences to all of his family and friends.

Russ Viig

Russell Viig - April 23, 2020 at 10:31 PM

BM

Bill and Frank were good friends of mine when we were quite young. I had a chance to see Frank once while Wilma was still with us. When I heard that Frank had passed I was decided to try to find Bill on the net, but wound up here. I always wanted to tell him that he saved my life.

Bill McEldowney

Bill McEldowney - May 16, 2024 at 10:16 PM