

Zachary Warnock

October 6, 1999 - June 18, 2011

Zachary Robert Warnock October 6, 1999 ~ June 18, 2011

Zachary Robert Warnock was born October 6, 1999. From the start, he fought for every breath. As he grew, Zack's childhood play was accompanied by physical therapy. His social circle included a host of medical professionals. Every moment of his life was aided by something: a feeding tube, an orthotic, a wheelchair.

And yet, what we will remember about Zachary is his smile and a laugh so contagious that even strangers stopped to comment about how special he was. Instead of words, Zack spoke in shades of joy. He touched many lives in his eleven years: through a shared cheer for a touchdown, a giggle while listening to someone read Puff the Magic Dragon or Caps for Sale, a laugh that came 15 seconds before a slapstick punch line in a movie he'd memorized, or a squeal of pleasure that came as he performed with classmates during the school musical.

Zachary is survived by his parents Mark and Larina Warnock, siblings Deanna, Kurtis, and Shyla, and grandparents Chuck and Jean Warnock and Shirley Tompkins. Our family has been blessed too short a time with a direct line to Heaven.

Play. Run. Sing. And laugh, Zachary. Laugh.

A Celebration of Zachary's Life will be held at 1:00 pm, Saturday June 25th at the First Presbyterian Church in Corvallis. Memorial donations "In Memory of Zachary Warnock," may be directed to any branch of the Benton County Schools Credit Union.

Tribute Wall

JT

“ Larina, I was so sorry to hear of Zachray's death. He was such a special child who touched so many with his zest for what was going on in his life. He will be truly missed much. Jo Anne

Jo Anne Trow - June 24, 2011 at 04:26 PM